CHAPTER 69

AN ACT

For the relief of Kimiko Shibuya.

May 14, 1951
[H. R. 1117]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provisions of the immigration laws relating to the exclusion of aliens inadmissible because of race shall not hereafter apply to Kimiko Shibuya, the Japanese fiancée of Wilburn L. Rash, a citizen of the United States and an honorably discharged veteran of World War II, and that the said Kimiko Shibuya shall be eligible for a visa as a nonimmigrant temporary visitor for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Kimiko Shibuya is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to the said Wilburn L. Rash, and that she is found otherwise admissible under the immigration laws. In the event the marriage between the above-named parties does not occur within three months after the entry of the said Kimiko Shibuya, she shall be required to depart from the United States, and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended (U. S. C., title 8, secs. 155 and 156). In the event that the marriage between the above-named parties shall occur within three months after the entry of the said Kimiko Shibuya, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of the said Kimiko Shibuya as of the date of the payment by her of the required visa fee and head tax.

Approved May 14, 1951.

Kimiko Shibuya.
